NARRATIVE:

Lemus, a documented "Sureno" (Southerner) gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include vandalism, burglary, battery, DUI, domestic violence, assault, DUI alcohol/drugs causing bodily injury, DUI-alcohol/drugs, drug possession, felon in possession of a firearm, vehicle theft, kidnapping for ransom. Lemus has served multiple state prison terms the longest a two (2) year term for felon in possession of a firearm. Lemus was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 07th, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Lemus qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for vehicle theft falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, status as a gang member, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
